Dear Friends,

Thank you for lifting up the youth at Indiana United Methodist Children's Home in prayer. The Bible tells us about the power of prayer. Philippians 4:6 says, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

For privacy reasons, we have changed the names in each prayer...but God knows exactly who they are and what they need!

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving present your request to God." Philippians 4:6 (NIV)

Heavenly Father: As we begin another year, please bless the youths at Indiana United Methodist Children's Home. Let their lives be filled with Your kind spirit. Please surround them with peace and goodness in the days ahead. Thank You for being our Protector and Savior. In Your Name we pray, Amen.

Heavenly Father: Lin will be transitioning from our James E. Davis School to a public high school. He is apprehensive about meeting new students and being accepted. Father, please help Lin find peace and solitude and guide him toward the right people for support and guidance. Amen.

Dear Lord: We celebrate the many accomplishments of Ari, Joe, and Teri, who left the Home a few weeks ago. Please protect them as they are reunited with family members and keep them safe. We pray that they find employment that will allow them to become independent and continue their positive path forward. Thank You God, for taking care of them. In Your Name we pray, Amen.

Dear God: We pray for new residents Reva, Louis, James, and Lamont. Please help them feel welcome at the Children's Home. We know through Your love and compassion, they will find comfort in knowing that hope for a better future is right around the corner. Thank You for giving them a chance to heal. Amen.

Thank you for praying for our youth.
